LEARN A FEW SWAHILI WORDS

Greetings in Kiswahili language.

- Habari means “hi” or “hello.” We can use this greeting with friends or relatives, but also with people we don’t know.
- Habari za asubuhi means “Good morning”. It is acceptable any time between approximately 5:30am and 12:00pm, when the day is still young.
- Habari za jioni means “Good evening”. This greeting is one you would use casually when night begins to fall. Address your friends, close family or close acquaintances, and those who are not your superiors, with this phrase.
- Uhali gani? Means “How are you?” This is the casual greeting form that you would use with your friends and family. For the sake of the friendship, it would be good to listen carefully to the answer! It shows caring and selflessness on your part.
- Umeshindaje? Means “How have you been?” This is a good question to ask someone you have not seen for a while. The inference is that some catching-up is needed!
- Habari za mchana means “Good afternoon”. It is an informal greeting and is used during the second part of the day. The appropriate period falls, in most cultures, from 12:00am till sunset.
 - Ni vizuri kukuona tena means “It’s nice to see you again”. This friendly, welcoming phrase is best used after greeting someone you have not seen for a while.
- Siku yako imekuaje? Means “How’s your day?” Ask this when you’re speaking to your Swahili friend during the day. It’s a friendly phrase to start a conversation with.
- Jambo! Means “Hello!” Suitable for use in most settings, situations and persons, this is an important Swahili greeting to know.
- Ni vyema kukutana na wewe means “It’s nice to meet you”. When meeting someone for the first time, this is a polite and friendly way to welcome them. It means you are happy to make their acquaintance.
- Jina langu ni ____. My name is _____. This is simple. To say “my name is” in Swahili, you just need the phrase “Jina langu ni,” Then say your name.
 - Mimi natoka Kenya means I am from Kenya.
