

NOMINATE A MAZINGIRA AWARDS FOR THE

AMANI AND MAZINGIRA PRESIDENTIAL AWARD 2022

The Amani and Mazingira Award as announced by H.E. President Uhuru Muigai Kenyatta, C.G.H. on 3 March 2022 during the UNEA5.2 High level Special Session titled UNEP@50 is intended to be an award for multilateralism to be championed by the Government of Kenya.

The Amani and Mazingira Award (hereinafter referred to as 'the Award') aims to recognize persons and institutions leading the journey towards environmental sustainability. It seeks to promote global efforts towards strengthening multilateralism in the world, particularly in the area of environmental protection, sustainable development and peace and security.

The Award will recognize and reward exceptional efforts made by individuals, groups and organizations, including women and youth as well as initiatives that have demonstrated or have potential in significantly contributing or driving effectiveness in the field of Environmental protection and conservation, sustainable development, peace and security issues.

In this context, the Award is to serve as an incentive and as a tool to identify, recognize, honor and reward those who have shown vision, leadership, creativity, enthusiasm in, and commitment and dedication for tackling the triple planet crisis, as well as the capacity to inspire others to replicate similar efforts. Against this background, the Award would create a platform that acknowledges good practices and spurs action in the global efforts towards a healthy planet for all.

Every two years those eligible for nomination will be determined with the following categories:

- (a) Multilateral efforts to achieve environmental protection, sustainable development, peace and security;
- (b) Fostering linkages between the environment, sustainable development, peace and security;
- (c) Addressing climate change and its adverse effects;
- (d) Dealing with disruptive and unpredictable international threats;
- (e) Championing and negotiating multilateral resolutions at a continental and/or international level.

Candidates:

- ✓ Must have contributed to work/initiatives geared towards environmental protection, sustainable development, peace and security.
- ✓ Must exhibit service leadership by developing and inspiring others. Tutoring and mentoring individuals or communities, or participating in initiatives that encourage individuals in socioeconomically disadvantaged communities to find solutions to environmental issues, peace and conflict issues.
- ✓ Engaged in activism to support addressing climate change issues, biodiversity loss, environmental pollution, deforestation and desertification, waste management, sustainable development, peace and security and countering terrorism and violent extremism and also fundraised for a good cause; or simply carried out individual acts of support, courage, and generosity.
- ✓ Strong communities are essential to a thriving society – and eligible nominees will be those who have made a mark in their communities and the globe and changed it for the better. This may include supporting other people to continue in their work towards environmental protection, sustainable development, peace and security.

Eligibility for nomination:

- Individuals and organisations can be nominated;
- Self-nomination is not allowed; and
- Incomplete application forms will not be considered.
